Lesson No. 1 - Jacob deceives his brother

Colour all the pictures

Genesis 25: 27-34

This true story is about:
Being selfish

Esau and Jacob were twins but they were very different. Esau was very hairy. He liked to go hunting. Jacob was happy to stay at home.

Sad to say, their mother and father each had a favourite son. Fill in the names.

Isaac loved E _____ .

Rebekah loved J _____ .

Because Esau had been born first, he owned the birthright. This meant he would become head of the family when his father died.

One day Jacob was cooking a stew when Esau came in from hunting. The stew smelled so good!

“Give me some stew, I’m starving”, he said. The crafty Jacob wanted something in return!

“I will give you some stew if you give me your birthright”, he said.

Without thinking, Esau foolishly agreed to hand over his birthright. Jacob had behaved very selfishly because he had cheated Esau into giving it away.

Sometimes, just like Esau and Jacob, we think only about what we want. When we are selfish, we are sinning against God.

Lesson No. 2 - Jacob deceives his father

Genesis 27: 1-29

This true story is about:
How Jacob cheated his father and brother

Please put your name here

When Isaac was an old man he became blind. He wanted to enjoy a meal made by Esau, his favourite son. He also wanted to give him a special blessing.

“Go and hunt some wild animals”, he said to Esau, “and cook them for me, then I will give you my blessing”.

Rebekah had been listening! She wanted her favourite son, Jacob, to have the blessing, so she told him to kill two goats. She said she would cook a meal for Isaac.

Jacob thought of a problem. “If he touches me”, he said, “he will know I am not Esau. My skin is smooth, but Esau’s skin is hairy”.

“Do as I say!” said Rebekah. They were both planning to cheat Isaac.

When the meal was ready Rebekah covered Jacob’s neck and hands with the skins from the goats. Jacob put on Esau’s clothes and took the meal to Isaac!

Isaac wasn’t sure who it was!

Genesis 28: 1-22

This true story is about:
God's care

Please put your name here

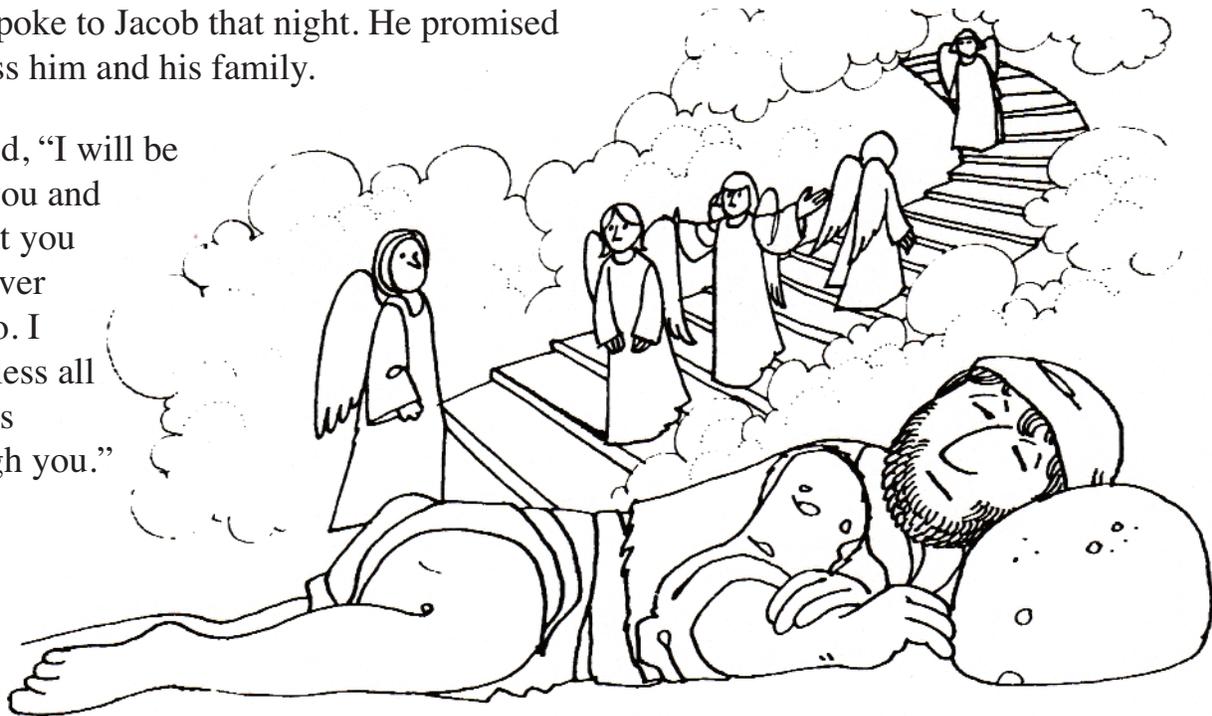

Have you always lived in the same house? Sometimes we have to move to another place.

Isaac told Jacob, to go to Haran to visit his Uncle Laban and marry one of his daughters. As Jacob's brother Esau was planning to kill him, Jacob thought it was a good idea to go away for a while!

Jacob set out on his journey. When night came he camped at a place called Luz. He used a stone for a pillow. He had a very strange dream. He dreamed he saw a stairway (or ladder). The bottom was on the ground and the top reached to Heaven. God's angels were going up and down the stairway.

God spoke to Jacob that night. He promised to bless him and his family.

He said, "I will be with you and protect you wherever you go. I will bless all nations through you."

When we trust the Lord Jesus, He promises to always be with us.

Colour these words from the Bible.

“He cares for you.”

Genesis 29: 1-30

*This true story is about:
How Jacob was cheated by his uncle*

Please put your name here

Jacob went to visit Uncle Laban and his family in Haran. After a long journey, Jacob met some shepherds beside a well with their sheep.

“Where are you from?” he asked them

“Haran”, they replied.

“Do you know Laban?” asked Jacob.

“Yes”, they said, “here is his daughter, Rachel, with her father’s flock of sheep”.

Write in the name of Laban’s daughter.

R _ _ _ _ I

Jacob helped Rachel to give the sheep a drink, and then he told her who he was.

Rachel ran home and told her father about Jacob. Laban asked him to stay with them.

Jacob agreed and started to work for his uncle. Laban promised to give him Rachel, as his wife. When the wedding took place, Laban cheated Jacob and gave him Leah, Rachel’s older sister, instead!

Jacob did not want to marry Leah! Laban said Leah ought to get married first because she was older. Poor Jacob! He had been cheated just as he had cheated his brother and father.

The Bible says, “Be sure your sin will find you out”. (Numbers 32: 23)
