1 Kings 17: 1-7

This true story is about:
God punishing a sinful king

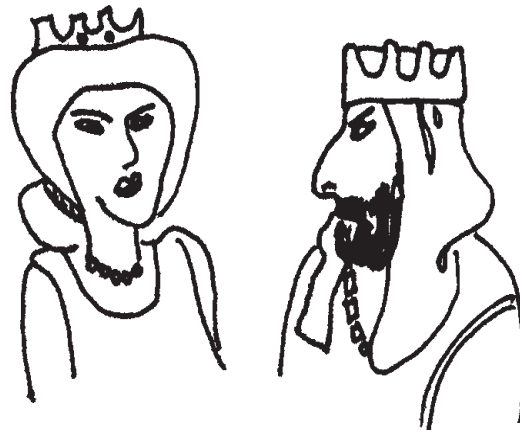

Elijah lived when there was a very wicked king in Israel. The king's name was Ahab. The queen, who was called Jezebel, was also very wicked.

Write the king's name.    h    b

Write the queen's name. J    z    b    l

God chose Elijah to be His prophet. God told Elijah what to say to the king.

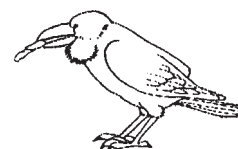

One day, God sent Elijah to Ahab to tell him that God would not allow any rain or dew to fall on his country for a long time!

King Ahab was very angry with Elijah, and wanted to kill him. But God told Elijah where to hide. Elijah went to live beside a stream, where God looked after him. Twice every day, big black birds called ravens brought Elijah bread and meat. He drank water from a stream called Cherith.

Colour the letters and the birds.

After a while the stream dried up. What was Elijah to do now? God already had a plan for him! All Elijah had to do was to obey what God would say to him.

It is always best for you to be obedient to God too!

Read

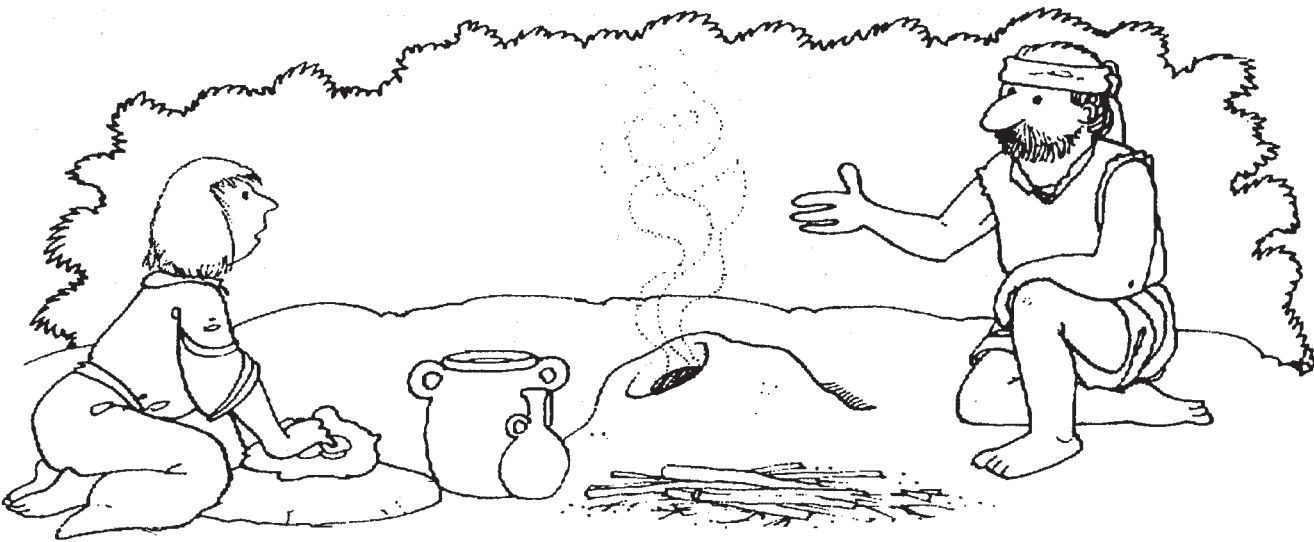

1 Kings 17: 8-16

This true story is about:
God giving Elijah all he needs

Please put your name here

When the stream dried up, God sent Elijah to a widow. She would look after him.

When he arrived, he found that she and her son were very short of food. It was the same everywhere. The crops had failed because there was no rain.

Elijah asked her to give him some bread and water.

Underline the correct word in these sentences: -

1. Elijah asked the widow for some meat fruit bread.
2. He also wanted some oil water wine.

She told him that she had only enough flour to make one small loaf for herself and her son.

“Make a loaf,” said Elijah, “and give it to me, for God promises you that your flour and your oil won’t be used up until He sends rain again.”

Being a wise woman, she believed God’s promise to her and she trusted Him. The Bible tells us that she went and did as Elijah said.

God kept His promise. She looked after Elijah for a long time, and she always had enough flour and oil to make bread.

Both the widow and Elijah were finding out how great God is!
Because God is great, you should trust and obey Him too.

1 Kings 18: 1-2
& 16-46

This true story is about:
God giving Elijah the victory

Please put your name here

For more than three years there was no rain. Everything dried up, and even the animals were dying.

One day, God sent Elijah back to King Ahab.

“Come with me to Mount Carmel,” said Elijah to the king. “Bring with you the prophets of the heathen god, Baal. We will have a test to show who is the true God.”

On the mountain they built two altars, one for Baal and the other for the Lord. On each altar they put a bull as a sacrifice. They agreed that whichever answered their prayers by sending fire from Heaven, to burn up the sacrifice, must be the true God.

Circle the CORRECT words in the brackets:-

1. On each altar they put a (goat lamb bull).
2. They waited to see if Baal or the Lord would answer by (fire rain).

For hours Baal’s prophets prayed for fire. There was no answer! They shouted even louder. Still there was no answer!

Elijah set up the Lord’s altar. Then he quietly prayed to God, and the fire of the Lord came down! Everything was burnt up!

When the people saw what had happened, they bowed down and said,

“The Lord, He is God.”

Colour the words.

The result was that many people in their hearts turned back to the true God. He had shown His great power. The day ended with a great rain storm!

*This true story is about:
A frightened man
forgetting God*

Please put your name here

Queen Jezebel, Ahab's wife, really hated Elijah. She said that she would have him killed within a day!

Elijah was frightened. He ran away to a very lonely place. There, he sat down under a tree and asked God to let him die!

Who wanted to kill Elijah? _ _ _ z _ _ _ l

God knew how tired Elijah was. What he needed was plenty of sleep and good food. He fell asleep, and when he awoke he found freshly baked bread and a jug of water right beside him.

After a good meal, he slept again, and then had another meal! Now he felt much better. God was caring for him, even when Jezebel was trying to kill him.

Elijah then went to a cave. There God spoke to him with a "still, small voice". He told Elijah to find a young man called Elisha. Elisha was to take Elijah's place as God's prophet.

Fill in the missing letters:-

E l i _ _ _ was to be the prophet in place of E l i _ _ _ .

Elijah's life was almost finished. He had served God well. God had helped him to serve Him. He will help you too, if you really trust Him, as Elijah did.
