Hebrews 11: 23

find this verse

The Israelites were descended from Joseph and his brothers. They had been living in Egypt for many years. A new Egyptian king came to the throne and he did not like having these strangers in his country.

He was afraid that they would outnumber his own people. He made the Israelites work as slaves building cities.

What were the Israelites?

Miriam, the baby's sister, was sent to watch what would happen to the baby.

Pharaoh's daughter discovered the baby when she came down to the river to bathe. When she saw him, he was crying and she felt sorry for him. She recognized him as a Hebrew baby.

Miriam offered to find a nurse for the baby. Miriam went and got his own mother to look after him for Pharaoh's daughter!

After some time Pharaoh's daughter took him into the palace as her own son.

Write YES or NO after the following:-

3. The baby's parents hid him at home for four months.
4. His parents had faith in God.

All the time God had been watching over Moses. He should have been drowned like all the other baby boys but his parents had FAITH IN GOD. They trusted God to take care of him.

God will take care of us today, if we trust Him.

“Have faith in God.”
