Lesson No. 1 - A blind man sees

You can read this story in your Bible

Luke 18: 43
Ask somebody to help you find this verse

A blind man sat at the side of the road as people passed by, on their way into Jericho. He couldn't see, so he couldn't work. All he could do was beg.

But one day the blind man knew that something special was happening. He could hear the sounds coming from an excited crowd.

“What’s going on?” he asked.

“Jesus of Nazareth is coming”, they replied.

Jesus of Nazareth! The blind man knew that He was the Saviour. Jesus would be able to help him, not by giving him money, but by giving him his sight.

“Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” he shouted at the top of his voice. Some people were annoyed at the blind man and told him to be quiet. But no one could stop him, so he kept on shouting.

John 6: 35
Ask somebody to help you find this verse

Please put your name here

A large crowd of people was following Jesus. Jesus looked around and saw the size of the crowd.

He knew that all these people would soon need to eat. It was a lonely place. Where would they be able to get food? Jesus already knew how He would feed them.

One of Jesus' disciples, Philip, tried to work out how much money it would take to feed the crowd. Then another disciple, Andrew, found a boy who had a lunch of five small loaves and two fish. Andrew couldn't see how they could be of any use among so many people.

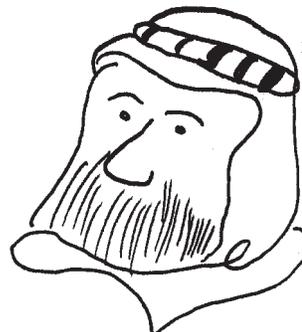

Draw a line from each disciple to what he was thinking.

This lunch will be no use!

*It would cost far too much to feed
this crowd.*

Draw the rest of the food which the boy had in his lunch, and fill in the total numbers below.

_____ loaves and _____ fish.

Only Jesus could meet the need of this hungry crowd. He got everyone to sit down on the grass. There were 5000 men – and women and children too. Then Jesus took the boy's five loaves and two fish and gave thanks to God for them.

The food was passed around – and there became so much that every single person had enough to eat! Because the Lord Jesus is the Creator of all things, He had the power to make food for everyone.

When they had finished eating, Jesus asked the disciples to gather up any food that was left. Twelve baskets were filled! There had been more than enough and no one had gone hungry.

Draw a line between the beginnings and endings of the sentences.

I'm sure you've fallen and hurt your leg at some time. Maybe you had a bandage and found it hard to walk. The Bible story is about a man who hadn't been able to walk for 38 years!

Each day he sat near the Pool of Bethesda with many other sick people.

They were waiting and watching to see if the water in the pool ever bubbled. They believed that the first person to get into the water when this happened would be healed. It would have been very hard for the lame man to be first into the water, because he had nobody to help him.

Fill in the missing words.

1. The man couldn't use his _____ .
2. He hadn't walked for 38 _____ .

Then one day, Jesus came along. He stopped and talked to the lame man.

“Do you want to get well?” Jesus asked. The man explained how he had no one to help him get into the water.

“Get up, pick up your bed and walk,” Jesus commanded. Normally this would have been impossible. But the lame man didn't stop to think about it. He just did what Jesus told him and it worked! He was able to walk! How excited and happy he must have been as he realized that this was the start of a new life for him! He would never have to sit waiting at the pool again.

Number the three things that Jesus told the man to do in the right order.

Although the man had been made better, he still didn't understand who Jesus was. Later on, Jesus met him again in the Temple. This time Jesus talked to him about being forgiven.

The Lord Jesus is the only One who can make our lives new on the inside. We need to have our sins forgiven, so that our lives are right with God and we can live to serve Him.

Jairus was a very important man in the town where he lived. His daughter, who was just 12 years old, was very ill, but nobody could help her. Then he thought of Jesus. He could heal people!

As quickly as he could, Jairus pushed through the crowd until he found Jesus. Falling at His feet, he pleaded with Him to come and make his daughter better. Jesus could see how sad Jairus was, so He set off for his house.

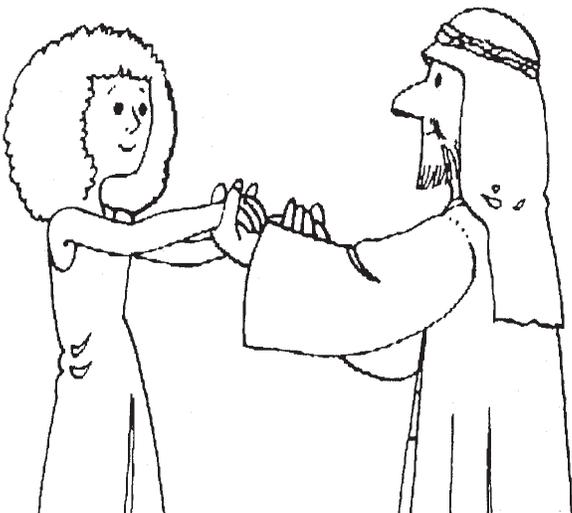

Who was ill? Jairus' _____

Whom did Jairus go and find? _____

While they were still on their way, some men from Jairus' house brought bad news. "Your daughter is dead," they said. "You needn't bother Jesus any more." Jairus must have felt very upset as he realized that Jesus' visit was too late. But Jesus still gave Jairus hope that all would be well. "Don't be afraid, only believe," He told Jairus.

Soon they arrived at the house where a crowd of people had already gathered to mourn the girl's death. Jesus took the girl's parents, with three of His disciples, into the room where she was.

Gently, He took the girl's hand and told her to get up. To everyone's amazement the girl stood up and walked around!

Then they gave her some food to eat. How happy Jairus must have been that Jesus had come with him and had given his daughter back her life!

How old was the girl? _____

How many disciples went with Jesus into the room? _____

What did Jesus do to the girl? Cross out the wrong answers.

He breathed on her.

He took her by the hand.

He told her to get up.

He lifted her head.

	4

Complete the puzzle by writing the words on the matching pieces, to say what happened.

Because Jesus is the Son of God, He had power to give life to the girl.

Each day we should be thankful for the gift of life. It is a wonderful thing to be alive and to enjoy the good things that God has given to us. The Lord Jesus also wants to give us another kind of life - eternal life. We can know that our sins have been forgiven, our lives are right with God and some day we will be in Heaven. Why not thank the Lord Jesus for dying for you so that you can have this gift of eternal life?

Colour the words.
