Once again, unbelieving Jews arrived (from neighbouring cities) and turned the people of Lystra against Paul. How did they treat him?

1.
2.

If you are a Christian, don't be upset when others mistreat you. Paul has given a good example to all who suffer because of their faith in the Lord Jesus. Despite the harsh treatment, Paul went back into the city, and the next day continued on his missionary travels.

If your friends make fun of you because you are a believer like Paul and Barnabas, remember that the Lord Jesus is your Friend. He is pleased when you tell others about Him and He will give you strength to be a faithful witness.

Lesson No. 4 The Adventures of Paul - City of Athens

Acts 17: 10-34

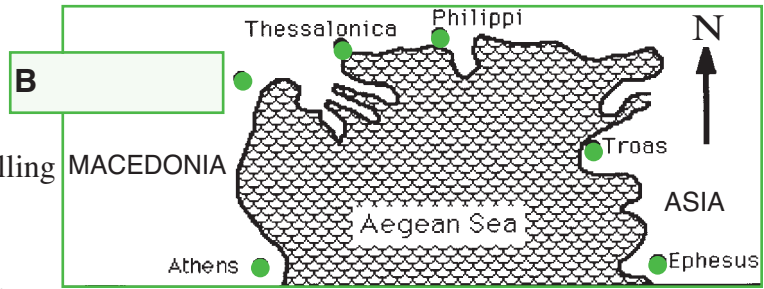

Acts 17: 30

Please put your name here

Nowadays, people travel quickly and easily for many reasons. Perhaps it's on business, on holiday or to visit friends.

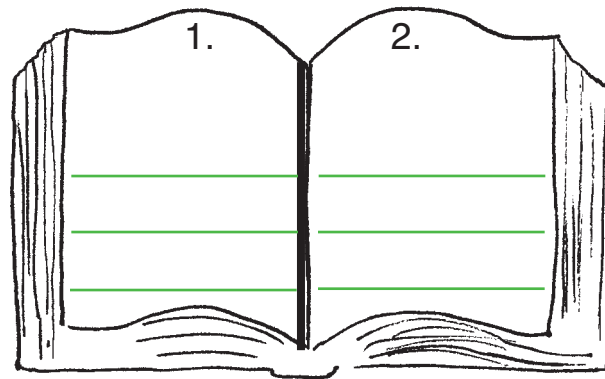

We now find Paul and his companions travelling to other European cities to preach the Good News of Jesus. After leaving Philippi, they visited several cities including Thessalonica.

Look at verse 10 and write on the map the next city to which they came.

--	---

Write in the 'Open Bible' the two things which the people of this city did when they heard Paul preach in the synagogue. This is a good example for us all.

	2

Many believed, but sadly, Paul had to leave them because the troublesome Jews from Thessalonica came and stirred up the people against him.

Write down the first letter of each object to find out where Paul went next.

	1

As Paul waited for Timothy and Silas to join him, he walked around the city.

What was Paul's reaction at seeing so many idols?

	1

Fill in the missing words in the paragraph below.

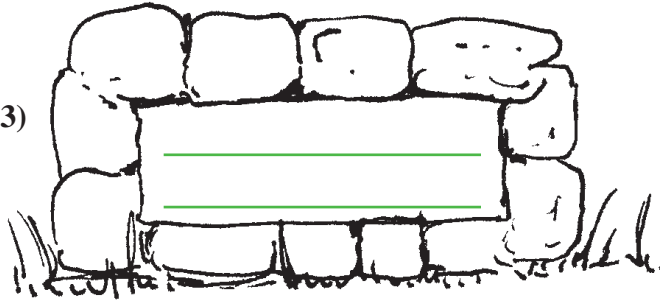

Paul could not keep the Gospel about the Lord Jesus to himself. So he began to share it with the _____ in the synagogue and anybody who passed by in the _____. Then a group of _____ and _____ who were philosophers, or teachers, questioned him because he preached to them the Good News about _____ and the _____.

These teachers brought Paul to a place called the Areopagus or Mars' Hill, where all kinds of subjects were discussed. They wanted to hear more of this new teaching.

Paul began his speech by mentioning an altar which he had seen in Athens.

What was written on the altar? (Verse 23)

	1
--	---

Paul then began to explain who God is.

Answer TRUE or FALSE to the following statements:-

- God made the world and everything in it. _____
- God lives in temples made with hands. _____
- God is like gold, silver or stone. _____
- God will one day judge the world. _____

	4
--	---

Write out the Key Verse.

	1

Whom has God chosen to judge the world? See verse 31 and circle the correct answer.

Alexander the Great Caesar The Lord Jesus Christ

	1

Write down the first two reactions caused by Paul speaking about the resurrection.

1. _____

2. _____

There was a third reaction; a few people believed and became Christians. What is your reaction? Let us remember that if you believe in the living Lord Jesus you will not have to face Him as your Judge. God wants you now to obey His command to repent. If you do so, you will be saved from the punishment which your sins deserve.
