Lesson No. 1 Samuel - Praying to God

1 Samuel 1: 1-28

1 Samuel 1: 10 & 11

At the time of this story, many people of Israel travelled each year to the House of God at Shiloh. Eli was the priest there.

We are introduced to Elkanah and his two wives. They are on their annual visit to worship the Lord at Shiloh.

Unscramble the letters to discover the names of the two wives.

Write down Hannah's problem.

Look at verses 9 and 10, and write down what is happening in each picture.

She was praying LOUDLY / SILENTLY.

Her lips were MOVING / STILL.

Her voice was HEARD / NOT HEARD.

Eli thought she was drunk. How hurt Hannah must have been!
We, too, may hurt others by judging wrongly!

Summarize what Hannah said in reply to Eli.

Eli comforted Hannah and she returned home happy. Earlier she had been so unhappy that she was unable to eat. She had poured out her troubles to the Lord, and now she was going home believing that the Lord had heard her prayer and was going to answer it.

Less than a year later, her prayer was answered.

What did she call her child, and why?

Hannah stayed at home and nursed the baby for the next few years while Elkanah took his family to Shiloh each year. When Samuel was old enough to eat ordinary food, Elkanah and Hannah prepared offerings and took Samuel to the House of God.

The Lord had answered Hannah's prayer, and solved her problem. Hannah kept her promise to the Lord.

*When we have a problem we should speak to the Lord about it, just as Hannah did.
We should keep praying until God makes it clear what He wants us to do.*

If we love the Lord Jesus and have faith in Him, when we do ordinary jobs for other people, we should do them as if we are serving God Himself. “Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men.” (Colossians 3: 23)

Even though he was so young Samuel, was growing up to be a great worker for God. All young Christians should also do what the Lord wants them to do, and serve Him in any way that they can. While Samuel was doing so well, Eli’s sons were doing the opposite. They didn’t care about serving the Lord or obeying His commands.

Look at verse 34 and write out Eli’s sons’ names.

Lesson No. 3 Samuel - Listening to God

1 Samuel 3: 1-21

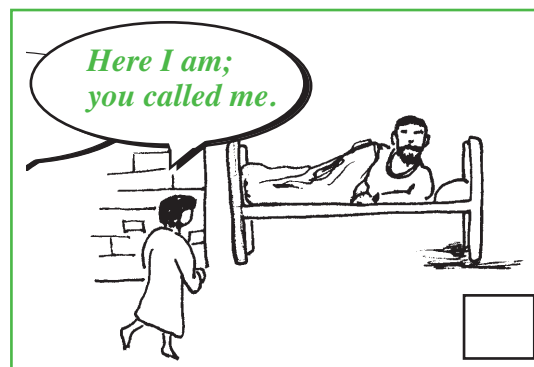

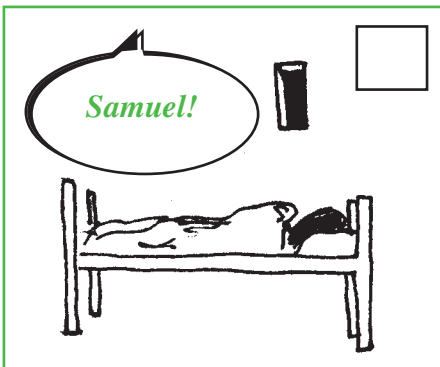

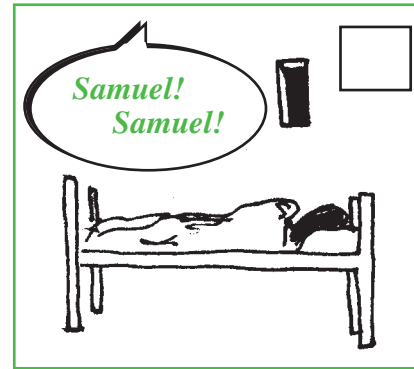

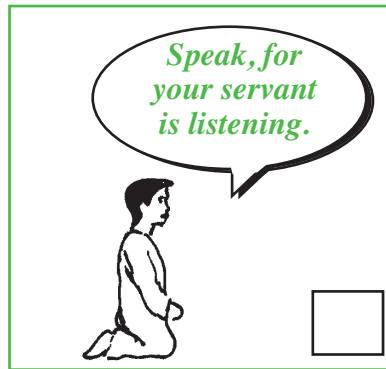

1 Samuel 3: 10

Please put your name here

In this lesson Samuel learns to listen to what the Lord has to say to him. This happened at a time of great wickedness in Israel. What the Lord had to say was, therefore, very important.

One night when Eli, who was getting old, had gone to bed, and Samuel also was lying down, something quite amazing happened.

Put the following pictures in their correct order by labelling them 1 to 5.

How many times did Samuel go to Eli? Circle the correct answer.

- 4 times 2 times 5 times 3 times

Write YES or NO after the following sentences:-

Samuel slept soundly through the night. _____

Eli realized after the third time that the Lord was speaking to Samuel. _____

Samuel did not know the Lord. _____

Eli's sons also heard the Lord speaking. _____

Look at the Key Verse and write out the part of it which tells us what Samuel said to the Lord on the fourth occasion.

Samuel actually heard the voice of the Lord. He listened to the terrible news that the Lord was going to punish Eli and his family.

Today, we do not actually hear the voice of the Lord, like a human voice, but He speaks to us through His Word, the Bible. That is why we must read it every day and keep our hearts and minds open to receive what it says. We should pray before we read. The words that you have just written from the Key Verse make a good prayer to use before you read the Bible.

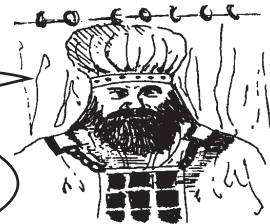

We must then obey the Lord by doing what He says.

Answer TRUE or FALSE:-

- Samuel stayed up all night. _____
- He was afraid to tell Eli the vision. _____
- He told Eli just a few parts of the message. _____
- Eli was not bitter against God, when he heard what was going to happen to his sons. _____

What did Eli say in verse 18?

Use the words below to fill in the spaces in the following paragraph.

with prophet Lord true

So the Lord was _____ Samuel. The Lord blessed him so that everything he said came _____. Samuel got to know the _____. The whole country knew that Samuel was a _____ of the Lord.

Samuel learned how important it was to listen to what the Lord had to say to him. This is what we all must do. In addition, He was getting to know the Lord, which is very important. People who believe in the Lord Jesus need to ask themselves two questions:

“Do I listen to the voice of the Lord as I read His Word?”

“Am I getting to know the Lord better as I grow older?”

If you are a Christian, let these questions search you!

Later Saul was anointed to be the first king of Israel. A new era in Israel's history had begun. Samuel had played a very important part in his people's history for many years. As both a prophet and a judge he was held in great respect. The secret of his greatness was his close relationship with God. Our lives, too, can be useful when we allow God to take full control of them. Read what Samuel said, near the end of his life, in 1 Samuel 12: 24.
