2. What did Felix hope Paul would give him?
3. What was the name of Felix’s wife?

	2
--	---

1)	2)	3)
-----------	-----------	-----------

	1
--	---

As he listened, Felix became afraid. Yet sadly, what did he say to Paul?

	1

How tragic! Listening to the gospel, he heard about his need to trust the Lord Jesus as his own Saviour, but he put the decision off! As far as we know, he never became a Christian. We, also, must beware of putting off this decision. What we do with the Lord Jesus is life’s most important decision for each of us.

Paul had once again faithfully witnessed, yet found himself unjustly remaining a prisoner for two years. The matter was not considered again until Festus became the new governor.

Write IN YOUR OWN WORDS why the Jewish leaders wanted Paul to be returned to Jerusalem. (Acts 25: 1-3)

	1

Again God overruled in protecting Paul and so once more he had to stand and give an account.

To whom did Paul appeal and why?

	2
--	---

God had said that Paul would be His witness in Rome - this was now his new destination!

Write out the part of the Key Verse that was certainly true of Paul and should be true of all those who know Jesus as their Lord and Saviour. Is it true of you?

The governor told the king about the dispute between Paul and the Jewish leaders.

Write IN YOUR OWN WORDS what this dispute was about.

	2

Caesar

King Herod

Alexander the Great

	1

Why did the governor order Paul to stand before the king, the chief military men and the leading men of the city? (Acts 25: 23-27)

Answer the following questions concerning what Paul told the king. (See Acts 26: 1-23.)

To which religious sect or party did Paul belong in his early life? (3) _____

What three things did Paul say he preached to those he met? (Verse 20)

	1

If we become Christians, we too, must do exactly what Paul said.

What was the reaction of Festus to Paul's testimony?

	1

What was King Agrippa's reply to Paul's challenge of whether he believed?

	1

What did both these men conclude about Paul and the accusations made against him?

	1

King Agrippa was very close to believing all that Paul had said and so becoming a Christian. But he did not fully believe, and so far as we know he did not become a Christian. So many people today hear the gospel of the Lord Jesus, but do not repent of their sins and turn to Him as their Saviour.
