Despite being taken away to a strange land, where false gods were worshipped, and being separated from their families, the four friends continued to ask for God's help in their daily lives. We, too, need to trust God for His help. As we face difficulties we should pray that He would give us strength and courage to say "No" to sinful temptations and "Yes" to things which are pleasing to God. We can be sure that He will always be there to help us, as a Friend, in every time of need.

Having dreamed about an image, Nebuchadnezzar decided to make one. All the people were told that they had to bow down and worship it, when they heard the sound of music being played. This was something Daniel's friends refused to do.

Answer the following questions, then fit your answers into the Grid provided. There is only ONE possible solution. (Hint: Start with the longest and shortest words.) The number in the brackets at the end of each question indicates the number of letters in each word.

What was the nationality of each of those who refused to bow? (3)

What was the image made of? (4)

What did the people do before the image? (10)

What was one of the instruments used? (4)

Where would those who disobeyed be thrown? (7)

What were the names of the three friends who would only bow down to the true God? (7), (8), (8)

	8

The king was furious when he heard that they had disobeyed his command. When they were brought before him and questioned, what did they say?
 Write out the Key Verse to answer this question.

	1

Which verse tells us that they would not worship the golden image?

	1

Daniel's three friends were prepared to pay the price of being true to God. They would rather die than disobey God! They believed their God could deliver them and were not afraid to tell the king of their faith in God! It's the same for us. Being a Christian is never easy. Sometimes it may mean standing firm against the crowd. If we truly love the Lord Jesus as our Saviour, we will want to please Him, whatever the cost. Let us remember how much it cost Him when He gave His life on the cross for our sins!

What were the two things they said they would not do?

Write in the boxes beside the flames the answers (all numbers), to the following questions.

1. How many opportunities did the king give them to bow down?

2. How many times more than usual was the furnace heated?

3. How many men were cast into the furnace?

4. How many men did the king see in the fire?

	2

Whose servants did Nebuchadnezzar say they were?

How many of his lords, or noblemen, did Belshazzar invite to the great feast he arranged?

	1

Describe IN YOUR OWN WORDS what the king did at the great feast.

- TEKEL (Weight) Your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians.

	1

Sometimes it is not easy to speak to others about the Lord Jesus, especially when the message we share involves bad news as well as good. Yet we must be faithful in reminding people of God's judgment upon sin.

Complete the 'FACT FILE' concerning the downfall of King Belshazzar.

Fact	File
What happened to Belshazzar? _____ Who took his kingdom? _____	When did this happen? _____ How old was this new king? _____

	2

God hates a proud heart, but He welcomes anyone who comes humbly to Him. Each of us needs to be humble before God, remembering who He is. We should aim to please Him in all we do.

By comparing Daniel chapter 3 (Daniel's friends in the furnace) with Daniel chapter 6 (Daniel in the den of lions), write down TWO important facts that were true of both situations.

Look up Daniel 2: 48 & 49; 3: 30; 6: 28; and IN YOUR OWN WORDS, write out ONE thing which had happened because Daniel and his friends had always put God first in their lives.

In these stories, we see that God honours those who honour Him. Is God first in your life? Have you allowed the Lord Jesus to become your Lord and Saviour by placing your trust in Him? As a Christian, does He have first place in your life? When we give time to prayer, reading the Bible, and attending church services, then God will bless us. Remember also that God's Word must be obeyed.

Like Daniel and his friends, we should say:-

GOD ALWAYS FIRST!
